Comments:

As progress appears to be satisfactory, this application will be handled administratively and withheld from the bulky SAB Agenda for the SPRING, 1993 SAB meeting, unless you object. In this case your written comments will be appreciated and may be noted on the enclosed check-off sheet. Please return the check-off sheet at your earliest opportunity.

If more than four reprints and/or manuscripts were included with this application, only four (4) of them have been submitted to you. Copies of only the abstract pages for any additional publications are included but if you wish the complete article, please inform me and I will forward it to you.
