

R: REDACTED MATERIAL

P.2

AUG 23 '94 04:36PM PHILIP MORRIS R&D T7

UNIT MANAGER

VHA

1
Joseph F. Borzelleca, Professor, Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology, received his B.S. in Biology and Chemistry from St. Joseph's University (1952), his M.S. in Pharmacology (1954) and his Ph.D. in Pharmacology (1958) from the Jefferson Medical College of Thomas Jefferson University. He was Instructor in Pharmacology at the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania (now the Medical College of Pennsylvania) from 1956-1959. He joined the faculty of the Medical College of Virginia as Assistant Professor in 1959 and advanced through the ranks to Professor in 1967.

REDACTED

- * Held elected office
- ** Held appointed office or position

In addition, his journal activities include:

Editor, Food Chemical Toxicology, 1992-;

Editorial Board

Environmental Carcinogenesis Reviews, 1981-

Journal of Environmental Pathology, Toxicology and Oncology 1977-

Journal of Environmental Science and Health, 1979-

Journal of the American College of Toxicology, 1982-

Journal of Toxicology: Cutaneous and Ocular Toxicology, 1982- 1992

Journal of Applied Toxicology, 1989-

Pharmacology, 1978-

Pharmacology and Drug Development, 1980-

Toxicology and Applied Pharmacology, 1975-1979

In the area of safety evaluation (toxicology) he has served as consultant to the following:

Food and Drug Administration

National Institute of Mental Health

National Cancer Institute

Environmental Protection Agency

Department of Labor - OSHA (Chairman, Carcinogens Standards Committee)

2501389969

JFB/cvb/07.94

TOTAL P.02