Cigarette-Cancer Link Only Statistical, Speaker Says

There is no clinical or laboratory evidence to prove that smoking at a cost of $7,450,000 to schools, hospitals and laboratories make studies. The council, he said, allows scientific director of the Council-free publication of results of findings, whether these are favorable, neutral or unfavorable to tobacco use.

Dr. Little said more studies
